Dear Brother Chalk,

I was thrilled to hear from you for it put my mind at rest knowing you had received my letter.

In it you mentioned wanting to use some things I had said. If you think it will help others, by all means do so.

Please do not use my name in your sermons for I feel that God knows about my rededication to him, and so does the man that led me to it. I feel it is not necessary to give my name for by my actions and attitude I shall proclaim Christ to others.

Each night I pray that I may grow spiritually and that my only dream, to do missionary work, may come true.

I thank you for your prayers. It is good to know that I'm not alone in my fight for Christ.

I know that you will respect my wishes.

In Christian love,
Melanie Kestcott
